COVID-19 Information & Resources for Businesses Webinar: Today March 13, 2020

In an effort to assist businesses who have concerns due to COVID-19, the State of New Mexico will endeavor to make sure that everyone has the resources and information readily available to help them succeed.

In this webinar you will learn about resources available to businesses and communities negatively impacted by the COVID-19. Panelists will include representatives from NM Economic Development Department, NM Department of Workforce Solutions, NM Department of Health, and the U.S. Small Business Administration.

The webinar is free to attend, but registration is required. A recording of the webinar will also be available after its completion.
