Re: NMREC Case No. 17-10-02-095

Dear Mr. Gillogly:

On July 19, 2018 you accepted the Real Estate Commission's settlement offer in the above-referenced matter.

The offer provides that you pay a $1,000 fine, complete for no credit a course deemed appropriate by the Commission, and receive a letter of reprimand. The fine was received on July 20, 2018.

You are ordered to complete for no credit either the 6-hour course in Risk Reduction scheduled for August 16, 2018 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. or the 6-hour course in Disclosure in Real Estate scheduled for September 12, 2018 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Both courses are offered by Professional Education Services located at 3200 Carlisle in Albuquerque and registration can be done by email at loutulga@gmail.com. Whichever course you choose to take, a certificate of completion is due in the Commission office by no later than September 17, 2018.

In keeping with the final term of the offer, you are hereby reprimanded for violating Section 61-29-12 A (2) (10) and (11) of the Real Estate License Law and Part 32, 16.61.32.8 A of the Commission Rules by advertising the subject property on the Multiple Listing Service (MLS) as "back on the market with a new roof and stucco". In fact, the stucco had been patched and painted.

This letter of reprimand will become a part of your licensing file and is a matter of public record. It will be reported in the Disciplinary Actions section of the Commission web site.

You are directed, if you have not already done so, to correct the brokerage practices that led to this disciplinary action.
