Claudia Armijo
DEPUTY GENERAL
COUNSEL

Dear Ms. Hathcock:

Enrique C Knell
DIRECTOR

As you were previously notified, the New Mexico Real Estate Commission has approved a settlement agreement in the above-referenced case. The settlement agreement provides that you pay a $500 fine to the Commission within sixty (60) days of the Commission's approval of the settlement agreement, which has since been received, and a letter of reprimand.

In keeping with the terms of the agreement, you are hereby reprimanded for violating Sections 61-29-12 (A) (1) and (2) of the Real Estate License Law and Part 16.61.16.8 (A) of the Commission Rules by your failure to exercise honesty and reasonable care in ascertaining the actual age of the mobile home in the subject transaction. This failure resulted in the mobile home being advertised on the Multiple Listing Service (MLS) as a 2006 model when in fact it was a 2000 model.

This letter of reprimand and the accompanying fine constitute a formal disciplinary action that will become part of your licensing file. It is a matter of public record and will be reported in the Disciplinary Actions section of the Commission web site and to the disciplinary data bank of the Association of Real Estate License Law Officials (ARELLO).

Finally, you are directed, if you have not already done so, to correct the brokerage practice that led to this disciplinary action.

Sincerely,

Wayne W. Ciddio
Executive Secretary
