Due to the COVID-19 disease, the US Centers for Disease Control (CDC) have issued updated measures to be taken to reduce the spread of the COVID-19 disease. PCS feels it is necessary to protect the individual candidates and our staff at the testing facility.

Professional Credential Services (PCS) has determined it is necessary to postpone the upcoming Practical Examinations in New Mexico until further notice. All candidates will be placed in the 1st available date and notified via email once a new exam date has been determined.
